

GOING FAST . . . Since lowering the price $2600 on these Sea View homes located on Via Monte D'Oro drive in the Hollywood Riviera section, Edwin A. Tomlin, sales agent reported that 63 of the homes have been sold in the past two weeks. Only a small down payment, $175, is required to purchase one of the 87 remaining homes. Two of the homes are furnished and open for inspection, Tomlin said.

Instructors Win Scholarship for Special Studies

Edward A. Reynolds, instructor of Problems of Contemporary Life at Torrance High School and Mrs. Kay Wheaton Davis, music teacher at the 186th Street School, have been awarded a tuition scholarship for the Training Center in Family Life, Health and Social Relations to be held at UCLA June 20 to July 29, according to university officials.

Reynolds, faculty sponsor of the Junior Statesmen was recommended for the scholarship by John Steinbaugh, principal of Torrance High School.

Mrs. Davis, who is completing her third year at the local school is currently studying for her administration credential. A graduate of Torrance High School she later attended the University of California where she obtained her teaching credential.

Card Room Hearing Slated

A public hearing on three applications for permission to establish card clubs will be held on July 5 next in the public hearing room of the county board of supervisors at 220 North Broadway.

One is from Joe Pine, asking permission to establish a club to be known as the California Club at 14519 South Western avenue, for the playing of bridge, rummy and pinocle. The hearings are scheduled to begin at 11 a.m.

OLD SCHOOL TO BE RAZED IN GARDENA

Another local monument is on its way to oblivion. The oldest education building in Gardena, the Gardena Grammar School, is soon to be razed. The battered, three-story structure, located in the Los Angeles Shoestring Strip, already has been replaced by new school facilities. The Gardena Grammar School was established 50 years ago in a tent, with an initial enrollment of seven pupils.

Auto Safety Campaign Results Bared

"Results have amazed and even shocked us." This statement was issued this week by the four committee members of the Torrance-Lomita new car dealer Operation Safety program—John Ott, Arthur Paulin, George Peckham, and Paul Loranger.

"Results" to which they were referring include the fact that approximately one third of all cars checked in the current "Check Your Car, Check Accidents" campaign have some mechanical defects. Lighting defects account for about half of this figure with tail and stop-light failures predominating, although many cars with partially burned-out headlights have been discovered. Poor brakes, including faulty hand brakes, rate next with 13.8 percent of the defective autos found equipped with inadequate stopping facilities. Worn or defective windshield wipers account for 9.2 percent of the unsafe items while 8.7 percent of the horns needed repair. Only 5.7 percent of the defecfive items were tires which were deemed unsafe for further use. The "Check Your Car, Check Accidents" campaign is the new car dealers contribution to the "Operation Safety" program of the National Safety Council and has been endorsed by civic and law enforcement officials. Motorists are invited to visit any new car dealer and receive this safety check with absolutely no obligation to them.
